Learning about the Hudson

More than 200 people gathered for Beczak Environmental Education Center's award breakfast at The Riverview in Hastings on May 22. The event raised a record $16,000 for the Yonkers center, which teaches children and adults about the Hudson River. The morning honored John Cahill of Yonkers, chief of advisor to Governor George Pataki; and Elizabeth Sansalone of Yonkers, founding member of Beczak.
